

A general association index with applications to spatio-temporal data

Renato Assuncao<sup>1</sup>, Noel Cressie<sup>2</sup>, Fabio Silva<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais, Brasil,

<sup>2</sup> Ohio State University, EE.UU.

Email: `assuncao@dcc.ufmg.br`

We propose an association index for random variables that measures the strength of their dependency and that is able to capture complex non-linear associations. We apply this index to several spatial and spatio-temporal problems, including association between space and time in point processes. We show how to estimate our index avoiding the curse of dimensionality.